

Because of technology, we started to realize another way for communication which is via messages, and video calls. Online communication or socializing is very primary nowadays. This essay discusses two methods for socializing; online, and in person. Maybe we became lazy to meet each other, or life issues have increased. After getting back from school every day, I spend around 2 hours chatting with my friend Basil.