

The inventor, Heron of Alexandria sold his inventions to wealthy patrons who enjoyed the splendour of his mechanical inventions as centerpieces for grand occasions.Fig.