

The topic we will learn today is language. The more languages a person has, the more helpful it is in the era we live in. I think the most helpful language among them is English. Now, let's find out the importance of language. Learning a foreign language is the best way to gain cultural experiences that expand the world. By learning a foreign language, we can increase our understanding of other cultures and gain new opportunities. We can also enjoy various advantages such as brain activation, cognitive ability improvement, self-development, and confidence enhancement. Nowadays, many people are studying English. The value of learning English is that whether you are looking for a new job or planning to travel around the world, learning English can help you develop in your life both personally and professionally. It is easy to see how important English is around the world. Many international companies conduct meetings in English, universities conduct classes in English, and tourists and travelers around the world use English as a language of suffering.
