

● I learned how to assess the creditworthiness of individuals ● I learned the bank's policies for granting loans and the conditions required to obtain a loan (interest rate and repayment period) ● I wrote many loan files for clients and communicated with clients personally to complete their data in the loan files ● I helped employees in delivering credit cards to clients and increasing their awareness and understanding of this product