

The main difference between past and present lifestyles is that the past lifestyle can be described as a simple, traditional, home lifestyle with self-contained economy and simple tools.