

Areeba mentioned about her roles and functions at Students Factory mentioned that her roles include being a member of the marketing team as well as being the HR Manager of the company. When they bring Leading into the picture, being an HR manager, she led her HR mentor towards the right path and make sure they do not face any sort of issues with their interns. Her job includes all these elements of PLOC, which is planning, leading, organizing, controlling.