

The effect of nanomaterials on the creep stiffness does not reveal any significant outcome as the creep can be either increased or decreased by the addition of nanomaterials. Also, the utilization of nanomaterial helps to increase the value of flow number that can reduce the permanent deformations of asphalt.