

Plants are very important in our lives. Fruits, vegetables, nuts, and grains all come from plants. Plants also give us materials to make things. Plus, plants give homes to many animals. Without oxygen, we can't live, so we need plants to help us. They also give us food. Even the milk and meat we eat come from animals that eat plants. Cotton from plants is used to make our clothes. Plants also make the world beautiful.