

I am applying for this course because I have been interested in the subject of lawyer for many years and I would like to work in this field As a career in the future, I have been reading books About law since I was nine years So I know quite a lot about the basic idea, but I need to extend what I already know.