

Open Pipes The shortest column of air that will resonate in a closed pipe spans $\frac{1}{4}$ of a wavelength. For the same frequency, additional resonance lengths are found at half-wavelength intervals in the pipe.