

here are a lot of important challenges that I have been able to overcome during my school life one of the most important challenges is that I have always followed the perfection in terms of academic performance, self-development , improving my talents that changed my personality to be better and made me a responsible person who is able to make the right decisions to make a positive changing.