

- by 2016, Dubai International will be the busiest airport globally,so Emirates should aggressively expand its Dnata subsidiary's ground-handling and catering services to capture revenue from the more than 100 competing airlines flying into the hub.