

watch a lot activity for more than 10 to 15 minutes. Maybe kids—and adults too—develop Attention Deficit Disorder (ADD), a modern condition which people are unable to pay attention, listen well, follow instructions, or remember everyday things. On the viewers