

A Network Security Assessment : is an audit that is designed to discovery weaknesses that are at danger of being compromised and could cause harm to business processes, or leak sensitive data.External, internal, and social.