

First, we program all the devices in the house in order to control them through the application. After that, we will be able to control all devices through the phone.