

One of the causes in Social Injustice is poverty; this consists of four data found in the novel. The concept can be found in some cases in the novel Les Misérables through the description of despair feeling and helter skelter depicted by the narrator. The last poverty depicted by the narrator can be seen in is delineated by the character. The anger of people comes from the result of revolution that give some damage such as the poverty. Marius has been living in poverty for five years. They are lost of materials that they have.