

After a problem occurred with Camera 3 several times over the course of two weeks, I found that the camera stopped working and gave a value of 13 when the power was disconnected from the system, and we needed to disconnect and turn it on several times until it started working again.