

Morocco has recently been making huge preparations to host the African Cup of Nations in 2025 and the World Cup in 2030, which are considered some of the largest football events in the world. The country is also putting a lot of effort to promote Moroccan tourism, culture and traditions, so that visitors will get to discover the beauty and wealth of history of the country. Morocco does not only aim to organize football matches, but also wants to leave a great impression in the hearts of all who visit. Improvements of roads, new stations, expansion of airports, advances of public transportation, so that visitors can move easily and above all safety between cities and stadiums.
