Education is very important for everyone, and many people do not know the importance of education. It makes a big different in the person. Uneducated person may face a problem and struggle to solve it. educated person is more likely to solve the problem in a short and a good way. Educated person knows how to deal with difficult situation, and uneducated person may not know what to do in such a situation. education develops people and makes them think in a better way