

Business finance Business finance concerns with the best way of using available financial resources to meeting business enterprise needs and overall objectives such as acquisition, loans short-term credits, profits and others, through putting them into profitable investments.