

What is emergency maintenance? Emergencies almost always happen without warning, so emergency maintenance cannot be scheduled, but every maintenance program should include plans for dealing with emergencies when they do occur.