

3. Non-Compete Clauses Exceptions There is a differentiation between enforceable non-competes that restrain employees from working for or starting competing organizations after severance, thus safeguarding employers' business interests.