The novel begins with Mr. Lockwood, who has moved to live quietly in the remote countryside of Yorkshire. After that, Lockwood meets Heathcliff, a tall man with a stern appearance. After Lockwood arrives at Wuthering Heights, he notices the strange atmosphere of the house and finds it dark as if it were a prison and guarded by fierce dogs.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com