

I like digital art because it allows artists to create amazing designs using technology. I also enjoy realistic drawings because they show great skill and attention to detail.