

In winter in Norway, every sheet of ice is covered with children playing hockey or skating. While other Scandinavians huddle around fireplaces, Norwegians bundle up and go out skiing. Indoor rinks are also used for skating and ice hockey.