

Indiana Fever Fans Roast Christie Sides After Viral Interaction With Caitlin Clark. Caitlin Clark and the Indiana Fever returned to practice after a week-long hiatus during the WNBA break for the 2024 Paris Olympics. Sides and Clark were sitting down on the sideline, sharing a conversation after practice. While it's unknown what the two discussed, WNBA fans attempted to transcribe the conversation, taking clear shots at Sides' coaching ability. "Sides 'listen Caitlin, what ever I call during the game, don't listen to me. You have a better judgement than mine,'" commented another. Following the Fever's practice on Wednesday, Clark was seen speaking with head coach Christie Sides. "Please get Fever a real coach" said another fan.
