

A report published in 2014 suggests that the UAE is in need of around 75 000 new teachers. The study conducted by Dubai International Academic City (DIAC) states that this number of teachers needs to be hired in order to fill the gap in the education sector.