The Columbia Basin Climate Change Scenarios Project (CBCCSP) is designed to serve as a comprehensive hydrological database to support climate change planning, impact assessment, and adaptation in the Pacific region.Northwest (PNW) is developed by a diverse user community with technical capabilities varying over a wide spatial range.Standards.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com