

Sed Festival: Usually given as the Heb-Sed Festival, this celebration honored the king and revitalized him. The festival began with a grand procession held in front of priests, nobles, and the public.