

1. Commitment to environmentally friendly practices, such as reducing energy and resource consumption. Compliance with local and international laws Following the regulatory laws of the telecommunications sector in Oman. Social and environmental responsibility Supporting and participating in community initiatives. Cybersecurity policies Commitment to using authorized systems only. Standards of work conduct Act professionally and respect colleagues and customers. Training and development Encouraging employees to attend training courses to develop their skills. 2. 3. 4. 5. 6.