

DOCUMENT OR CONTENT ANALYSIS Content analysis focuses on analyzing and interpreting recorded material to learn about human behavior. Content analysis is sometimes quantitative, such as when one investigates middle school science textbooks to determine the extent of coverage given to the achievements of minority scientists.