

lately, extraordinary interests have arisen about the deaf and mute individuals with unique necessities, who stand out enough to be noticed from all of the society according to of extraordinary significance in the advancement of society, this segment of the society whose disability is restricted in speaking and hearing just, which can be redressed in alternate ways, including inventing applications , and our application tries to offer types of assistance to them that empower them to take part and to work in the daily life.