

IMC services are good, but poor when discharging patients. Insurance claims hospital is dropping a large amount, not the first time, resulting in delays and withheld services, including baby milk. I paid for a normal delivery due to insurance issues, unlike other hospitals where services are free.