

Building a metro for public transport in the cities of the Kingdom, starting in Riyadh, is one of the largest and most important projects in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. Also, the presence of such projects reduces the rates of car accidents and deaths. Relying on the metro for transportation may reduce taxi income in any city