

The sustainable plan of the project includes launching periodic awareness campaigns and strengthening partnerships with hospitals to provide accessible donation centers. Innovative applications will also be developed to facilitate the donation process and provide incentives to regular donors to ensure continuity of blood supply.