

Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed shares his father's passion for hunting and falconry. He is also deeply interested in poetry, particularly the Nabati style, and actively supports poetry competitions and cultural events. His commitment extends to fostering artistic, literary, and innovative initiatives within the community. Additionally, he follows Emirati sports and personally recognizes the achievements of local athletes.