Like any normal day, all children go to school.They began searching for Tom until they found him tired, with traces of hunger and thirst on his face, so they hurried to take him to hospital.Then, when he was on his way to school, he took a shortcut so that he could get to school quickly, but the road was isolated and not comfortable.Then he continued on his way to school, and in a moment Tom felt sleepy.When Tom opened his eyes, he saw a person wearing a black coat, but he did not see his facial features.The policeman continued searching until she reached a narrow road that led to Tom's school, so the officer ordered a search for Tom, they started searching for Tom.Then, Tom started to feel afraid, but he continued walking because he was late for school.The person replied: You will know soon.The students replied: We did not see him today The school day ended, and Tom's parents noticed that he had not returned and that it was late.Then the policeman asked them to wait and he would call them if he knew anything.He told everyone and they began an intensive search.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com