

The stanza employs symbolism to represent different stages of life.