

It initiates action –directions is the function which is the starting point of the work performance of subordinates .it is from this function the action takes place subordinated understand their jobs and do according to the instructions laid.Whatever are plans laid,can be implemented only once the actual work starts. it is there that direction becomes beneficial