

External Factors: Opportunities and Threats for PDO company: Providing some opportunities to stabilize gas and crude oil and providing opportunities to exchange experiences and knowledge from Shell and other companies and projects Providing opportunities through the development of oil and gas extraction in terms of Cost, be innovative and creative, and explore opportunities to find renewable energy and be linked with sustainable technology. The market fluctuations in oil prices for the companies witnessed stability and profitability and increases.