

width that is at least 40% of the arm circumference midway between the olecranon and the acromion, or a cuff bladder that covers 80% to 100% of the circumference of the arm.