

We found a lot of videos online of teachers being very agitated and angry, beating and abusing students. Usually, the reason is provocation, mockery, and intentional annoyance by the student towards the teacher. Whenever the school administration spoke to take any action, they blamed me because I could not rule the class with bullying and beatings.