I have spoken in front of large audiences and enjoyed the experience, but this was not always the case.A group of us drove to the Oman Convention and Exhibition Center in Muscat.Of course the performance was not easy at the beginning, I was very nervous when speaking in front of the audience Honestly, I start forget about wahat I want to talk .also failed to establish visual contact with audience.At this event, a lot of people gathered to explain company ideas and, but I was one of the people talking about us company ideas and I was really hesitant to go there.In fact, I am a very shy person and don't like giving speeches.It made me nervous that I wouldn't be able to get everyone's attention, but after this experience, my attitude completely changed.I had to try my best to make them hear me, they was full of people, so people in the back didn't realize what I was saying.And speak front of a lot of people.
