

For the Data Analyst and Business Analyst certification from the Ministry of Communications and Information, you will learn: Data Collection & Analysis: Techniques for gathering, processing, and analyzing data to identify trends and insights. Reporting & Presentation: Techniques for creating detailed reports and presentations to communicate findings and recommendations effectively.