

Charitable work is work related to goodness and benevolence to others and does not depend on any financial profile. First of all, it is of great importance and has a positive impact on all individuals. Furthermore, it increases the spread of cooperation and increases the individual's sense of responsibility towards others. Finally, most importantly, it spreads love, happiness and spirit of solidarity. There are many associations that contribute to this, such as the Algerian Red Crescent Society and the Red Cross, as well as people who help the poor and other needy people. We wish them success in their work.
