

These reach maturity up to 30 h after entry into the cell and rapidly accumulate within the endocytic vacuole, which may contain more than 1000 organisms.