

university life is a complete transition from school life, during which students go through a lot of behavioral, psychological and other changes, as school was the Safe place for them, and teachers were their second family, and so they are Surprised when they move to college, which no longer enjoys the protection that it used to you are at school. It can be Said that the experience of university life is a unique experience, and it is Certain that the most memories that people have in their lives are the memories they , obtained in their university life, especially on trips, and in the college yard with friends, and Students also enjoy the times they spend in the college center. becomes serious about his job, making important decision that may affect his future himself.