1.Implementation: Resource Allocation In this stage, resources such as finances, personnel, and technology are allocated to support the chosen strategies.– Organizational Alignment: The strategy is communicated throughout the organization, and structures, processes, and systems are adjusted to support its execution.This may involve changes in roles and responsibilities, workflow, and performance management 3.2.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com