Immediate endoscopy (see Chap.34) is indicated to identify the cause and the site of bleeding; at least 30% of patients suspected of bleeding from esophageal varices bleed from other sources (gastritis, ulcers).If the patient is actively bleeding, oral intake will not be permitted and the patient will be prepared for further diagnostic and therapeutic procedures.PORTAL HYPERTENSION

Summarized by © lakhasly.com