

Here are the answers based on the case study: 1. Poor nutrition is a global issue because it contributes to widespread health problems such as obesity, diabetes, and malnutrition. What are some reasons that entrepreneurs fail in the first few years?  Entrepreneurs often fail due to reasons such as lack of market understanding, inadequate funding, insufficient planning, poor management, or failure to adapt to challenges. Educating individuals and providing tools like the one Yacob offers can help address this challenge effectively. 2. 3. 4. 5. Do you agree?